THE RAIDER PHILOSOPHY

The Shippensburg University Men's and Women's Soccer programs value hard working, enthusiastic individuals. These programs focus on the tactical development of young players in preparation for high level high school, club, and college play. Players will be guided in developing tactical awareness by Shippensburg University coaches along with other collegiate coaches from various divisions.

"Winners must have two things, definite goals and a burning desire to achieve them."

Coaching Staff

Rob Fulton will enter his 12th season as head coach of Shippensburg University, with a 100-92-21 overall record between 12 seasons at Ship. Fulton comes from College of the Southwest. During his tenure at CSW Fulton received Coach of the Year honors while leading his team to a RRAC Championship. Recently, Fulton has guided the Lady Raiders into the conference playoffs as well as named 2013 NSCAA Atlantic Coach of the year.

Jeremy Spring began his career as Assistant Coach at Slippery Rock University, his alma mater, joined the staff at James Madison University in 2004 before assisting the Gettysburg Women's Soccer team to a winning season in 2007. Spring will enter his 10th season as Shippensburg University Men's Head Coach, and was named Regional Coach of the Year after an exceptional 2010 season. Spring proved his recruiting and coaching talents by leading the Men's team to a PSAC Championship and back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances (2010 and 2011).
